

The SGMI Management Institut St. Gallen provides management education to top management and corporate leaders. We specialize in open seminars and international management programs based on the holistic, integrated St. Gallen Management Model. In addition, we provide company-specific programs for major global companies.

Lecturers 30-100%

You are a top-flight lecturer with a proven track record. You have a first-class academic background, preferably with a PhD or post-doctoral qualification («Habilitation»), and are fluent in English and German. You are used to presenting the latest knowledge in strategy, marketing, finance or leadership to groups of motivated, highly demanding participants. The position is based in St. Gallen/Zurich; however, you should be willing to travel worldwide.

We provide an intensive introduction to our management concepts, considerable freedom regarding workload and lecture topics and a very attractive employment package.

Please send your application, including your track record as a lecturer, to Prof. Dr. Hans Peter Fagagnini, SGMI Management Institute St. Gallen, Tellstrasse 18, 9000 St. Gallen, Switzerland or to fagagnini@sgmi.ch
